

Tiger Properties announce formation of new facilities management operation

Dubai 25th of October

TIGER PROPERTIES, one of the region's pioneering realty firm, has today announced its establishment of a new facilities management arm within its wider corporate framework, for the purposes of servicing its vast portfolio of iconic, quality developments, in accordance with its current, best-practices driven organizational restructuring.

CEO of TIGER PROPERTIES, Taha Mohammed, said the Tiger Group already have a team of professionals servicing Tiger's numerous towers in Sharjah and Dubai in Taawun, Al Khan, Al Musalla, Al Wahda, Al Qasbaa; and services are also provided to Samaya Hotels and Resorts Sharjah operations. The management of the various teams, however, will now be unified under the new facilities management division which supports the organization's initiatives designed for streamlining operations to service customers more efficiently.

"The establishment of our new facilities management and services operation is part of the continuity in development that TIGER PROPERTIES is embarking upon after achieving such highly qualitative results so far"; Mr. Taha said.

"During its initial stages, the new facilities management division will oversee TIGER PROPERTIES' projects in the Emirates of Dubai and Sharjah, comprising a team of 50 professionals who will support the department's function of providing relevant services and requirements 24-hours a day"; Mr. Taha said.

In accordance with the geographical segmentation of its operations, TIGER PROPERTIES' new facilities management division will comprise of two headquarters; the first being in Al-Taawun

Towers in Sharjah, intended to service more than 1200 rental housing units; with the second headquarter based in the Jumeirah Lakes project in Dubai.

In addition to its customer-centric, facilities management operation, TIGER PROPERTIES is expected to allocate a dedicated customer-service hotline as part of its exceptional after-sales relationship with clients.
